

“Align Systems, Process and Organization to Support E&P Growth”

Client: US E&P Division of National Oil Company

Client Challenge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Highly customized SAP system required by parent company was not working for U.S. E&P subsidiary accounting processes as they expanded into onshore activities • Lost professional time troubleshooting processes and manual workarounds • Exposure to various liabilities such as partner audits and taxing authorities • Impacted personnel ready to depart company due to hours and frustration • In ability to support evolving business strategy
Boxley Group Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review oil & gas functions to identify gaps with industry leading practices • Provide direction to potential solution options • Created near term and long term IT, process, and organization changes to deliver their strategic roadmap
Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recommendations for IT solutions for accounting and finance including short list of potential solution providers to get their near term issues under control • Prioritized list of process improvements • Prioritized organizational changes needed to support the strategy
Boxley Group Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information Technology • Process Optimization • Strategy Development & Implementation