

“SEMS Audit Readiness for Offshore Operations”

Client: Large Global E&P Company

Client Challenge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interpreting and implementing a new government regulation - 30 CFR 250 Subpart S – Safety & Environmental Management System (SEMS) • Required capability review of wells operations in Gulf of Mexico in preparation for regional audit • Required training and awareness plan for drilling and completions teams • Coordinating regional audits
Boxley Group Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Created and helped manage project plan with multiple complex work streams • Developed SEMS communication tools for GoM region • Provided guidance and direction for office and offshore facility awareness of government regulations • Coordinated with 3rd Party contractors to ensure compliance with SEMS • Provided support and coordination of business operations during regional SEMS audit
Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Successful facilitation of GoM business units for regional SEMS audit • Increased awareness within in the business units of SEMS and personnel responsibilities.
Boxley Group Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organizational Change Management • Project Management • Process Optimization