

“Strategy and Planning for Offshore Center of Operating Excellence (COE)”

Client: US E&P Division of National Oil Company

Client Challenge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategy to develop offshore operating capability • Scarce resources and skills required for organizational capability • Required offshore standards and practices • Sharing expert knowledge and best/industry practices would accelerate market entry
Boxley Group Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Analyzed company process, system, and culture readiness for operating offshore • Identified options for organization structure and COE role • Developed well delivery process as framework for standards and processes
Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Framework and guiding principles for COE based on offshore well delivery process • COE structure, roles and responsibilities established • Information management strategy and plan to establish offshore operating system
Boxley Group Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organizational Change Management • Organizational Design and Capability • Strategy Development & Implementation