

“Planning for Center for Offshore Operating (COE) Excellence”

Client: US E&P Division of National Oil Company

Client Challenge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Strategy to develop offshore operating capability</li> <li>• Scarce resources and skills required for organizational capability</li> <li>• Required offshore standards and practices</li> <li>• Sharing expert knowledge and best/industry practices would accelerate market entry</li> </ul>
Boxley Group Action	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Analyzed company process, system, and culture readiness for operating offshore</li> <li>• Identified options for organization structure and COE role</li> <li>• Developed well delivery process as framework for standards and processes</li> </ul>
Results	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Framework and guiding principles for COE based on offshore well delivery process</li> <li>• COE structure, roles and responsibilities established</li> <li>• Information management strategy and plan to establish offshore operating system</li> </ul>
Boxley Group Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Organizational Change Management</li> <li>• Organizational Design and Capability</li> <li>• Strategy Development &amp; Implementation</li> </ul>